CHEVER MARKETS D'MORSE'S INVICORATING CORDIAL

FOR GENITAL BEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONT. NENCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The a 1 NRNCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The as-tonishing success which has attended this invaluable medi-cine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Laritude, and General Prostration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, ren-ders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered. In fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands un-rivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authonically received the sanction, of the rivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authoritically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRO-DUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infaillible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and never before found—the only spent that can administer to MIND DISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or basicess, loss of MEMORY, CONFUSION, thoughts of self-destruction, feer of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, remew the health of those who have destroyed it by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable. DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured, and is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the

and is constantly curing, these complaints—releving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show:

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this Cordial thus: "It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, precured some of your Cordial. He teste me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his fail strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the mean time he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever recommend it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of cures out of the question. The proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimeny to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and apparently miraculous virtues. In all directions are to be found the bappy parents of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS

have not, in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate cases, effected radiest cures, after patients had been abandoned, and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

THE COMMON EXPRESSION of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial lighty spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits, having tried various mediciones so says: "I had consulted several distinguished Some said I could not be cured; others pre Another symmetric physicians. Some said I could not be cured; others pre-scribed this thing and that; but I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordial. I must say it completely other says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cordial Why had I not heard of it before? It would have d me so much expense, besides years of mental and yearfloring."

saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."
CAUTION.—Ask for Dr. Morze's Cordial, and take no other, as there are worthless imitations which its unrivalled excellence, fame, and popularity have brought into the market. It will not hurt the most delicate female, but do good. Beware of all other Cordials, &c., and try only this. It is put up in pint bottles, with the words Dr. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL blown on the glass. Price $3 per bottle; two bottles, $5; six bottles, $12; and $24 per dozen.

N. B.—Important advice accompanying each bottle.

Office, No. 7 South Frederick street, Baltimore, Maryland, on the left hand side, going from Baltimore street, seven doors from the corner. Be particular in observing the name and number, or you will mistake the place.

DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

In Laddresses all those who have injusted the masless by Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences, that secret and solidary habit, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

habit, which ruin both boty and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Museular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebotings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Weakness of the system, Nervous bebility and premature decay generally arise from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice se fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its Victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsis, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption; also those serious Mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits, or peculiar fits of Melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by indulging in Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to their Country, a pleasure to their friends, and ornaments to Society.

Society.
DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS. GANIC WEAKNESS.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been shandoned to die By its complete invigoration of the Nervous System, the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the failen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an emacated and premature decline, to sound and pristine health. Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion! Such persons, before contemplating tations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion! Such persons, before contemplating should reflect that a sound mind and bedy are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately.

and with our own. Let no hase decizely percent you, our apply immediately.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnstom may religiously confide in his honor as a Gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

TO STRANGERS.

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last ten years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the Reporters of the papers and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, is a sufficient guara by that the afflicted will find a skilful and honorable physician.

TAKE NOTICE.

TAKE NOTICE. It is with the greatest rejuctance that Dr. Johnston permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise; but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fall to fall into the hands of those imprudent, boasting impostors—individuals destitute of innowledge, name, and character—pedlars, shoemakers, mechanics, &c., advertising themselves as physicians; ignorant quacks, who keep you triffing month after month, as long as possible, and in despair leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointment. It is this motive alone that induces Dr. J. to advertise, for healone can cure you. To those unacquainted with his reputation to decins it necessary to say, that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his Office.

leaving the straw or grass all standing. It weights two hundred and fifty pounds, is drawn by one horse, and gathers from ten to twelve acres per day. The fingers, or teeth, eatch all the heads, the revolving knives cut them off and throw them back into the box, which will cross a twentyacre field without emptying. The heads are then loaded into a wagon and taken directly to the mill for cleaning, thus diminishing the labor three-fourths, and saving all the Long John Wentworth has been nominated for Congress in this (Chicago) district; but the Whigs say that he can be defeated by a good, strong-working Whig. John, however, will be somewhat hard to beat, for he claims to be a River-and-Harbor man, Freesoiler, and Simonpure Democrat, all of which qualities combined, with as much political rascality as ever was concentrated in one man, his friends think will certainly secure his election.

Too Much Reading. To the Editor of the New York Tribune :

I like your paper, but I shall have to stop it. I have to work for my living, and I can't find time to read half your sheet. Column after column of foreign intelligence, news from the Pacific, correspondence from all parts of the world, court proceedings, reports of meetings, &c., I am obliged to leave unread, not from lack of inclination to peruse them, but from sheer want of time, still I do contrive to worry through the greater part of your regular sheet, by staying at home evenings, when I should be otherwise looking about town; but every now and then you double the dose by an extra sheet or supplement, and that quite does me up. I can't begin to read it. I think, therefore, I shall have to discontinue the Yours, &c. John H. Smith. Tribune.

Response: DEAR JOHN: Your case is distressing, but it is by no means so peculiar as you seem to imagine. It is not in the Tribune alone, nor even in reading generally, that people labor under a difficulty akin to yours. For instance, your brother Baxter eame down here from the country the Smith other day, and stopped at the Astor House, but had to quit it—the living was too much for him. The food was very good and abundant—in fact too much so—and that did him up. He didn't eat more than half way down the bill of fare, while he saw others on every side who had got very near the bottom of it, and were still working away when he left the dinner table, so full that he could hardly stand or walk. He had a touch of the cholera the second day, and was threatened with apoplexy-so he had to quit the Astor abruptly and take board at a chop-house, where he only ate what he called and paid for, plate by plate. Had he staid, the coffin-maker would have taken his measure before this time. Then there was your cousin, John Z. SPIRITUAL RAPPINGS-A POETICAL POEM.-Once upon a midnight stormy a lone bachelor attorney pondered many a curious volume to his cart's forgotten lone; while he nodded, nearly napping, suddenly there came a tapping, as of some one gently rapping—rapping at his cham-ber door.
